OSCOPE

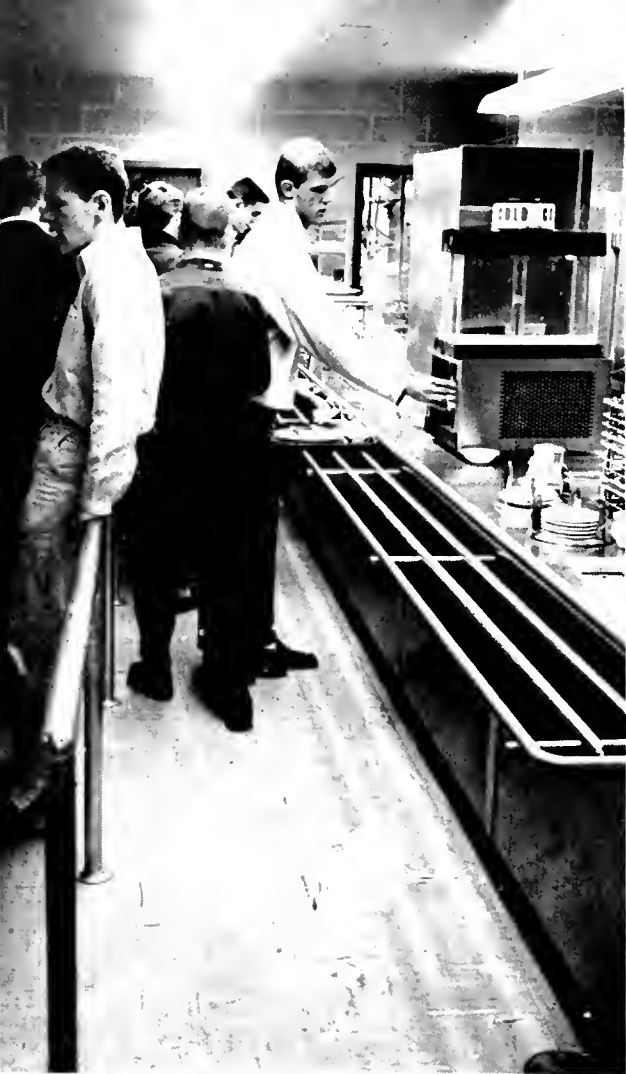

FOREWORD

The purpose of the 1963 KALEIDOSCOPE is to preserve for the students and the administration of Hampden-Sydney College their years spent on the Hill. No picture or collection of pictures can recreate to the fullest the experiences one carries away from these grounds, but it is our hope that we may to some degree assist in the pleasant recall of memories associated with the school.

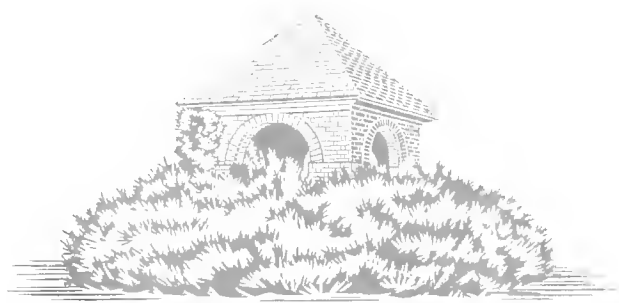

Pictured throughout the book is the A. D. Watkins Bell Tower around which the academic life of Hampden-Sydney is centered. Using the bell tower as a focal point we have recorded the face of Hampden-Sydney, a portrait which will serve to resurrect the memories which may become blurred with time.

The new student activities building, Winston Hall, was completed during the summer of 1962. Named for James Henry Curry Winston '94, Professor of Chemistry and Geology who with fifty years of teaching had the longest term of service of any individual in the school's history, the building contains many new facilities. Foremost of these are the new dining room, offices for the student publications, a student government room, a glee club room, and a seminar room.

In addition there is the Patrick Henry Room, for private dining, the William Henry Harrison Room, for banquets and larger groups, and the new Book Cellar. The 411,000 square feet of space in Winston Hall serves both a recreational and functional purpose, featuring card, ping-pong and billiard tables in the lounge, and the modern facilities of the new dining hall.

"The gentleman is learn'd, and a most rare speaker, to nature none more bound; his training such that he may furnish and instruct great teachers, and never seek for aid out of himself."

—SHAKESPEARE

It is with great pride that we of the 1963 KALEIDOSCOPE Staff dedicate this book to Dr. Philip Hortenstine Ropp.

The Tiger was founded in 1920 and has been in continuous existence on the H-S C campus since that year. A member of the Associated Collegiate Press, it is published on alternate Friday evenings during the school year by the students of Hampden-Sydney College from its offices located in Winston Hall.

The Tiger serves two purposes: to provide a medium for the distribution of information to H-S C students and to provide an outlet for student expression on the campus. The news staff seeks to collect and present accounts of past, present, and future events of interest to students; the feature staff attempts to present discussion of interesting and controversial issues, both on campus and beyond; and the sports staff provides an excellent summary of the fortunes of H-S C's athletic teams.

The Hampden-Sydney German Club has come into its own this year as the financially biggest organization on campus. With a budget more than twice that of recent years, the officers of the German Club have been able to provide the big name entertainment that the students have asked for. There have been several factors contributing to the success of this year's German Club. The first was that because of the promise of financial support from the school, contracts were able to be signed during the summer, enabling the German Club officers to produce the talent they promised. The second was the fact that letters were sent out during the summer to incoming freshmen, making them aware of the functions of and benefits derived by membership in the German Club. The third was the fact that the school, through the Board of Trustees, voted to allot to the German Club $3,000 if the German Club were able to match that amount. Because of this support, membership dues were reduced to $12 and the students joined the German Club in unprecedented numbers. This factor, better student support, led to the membership totaling about 85% of the student body who were eligible to join. Married students were allowed free this year for the first time. The final factor has been the work of the German Club officers and their co-workers. This has been the all-important thing, because, without this, none of the others would have been possible. The officers have worked to make this year's German Club the best in its long history.

Homecomings on October 19 and 20, featured two of the best rock and roll artists of the day, The Olympics and the Great Bo Diddley. A new feature added to the German Calendar was the Christmas Formal, held on December 7, with music provided by Billy Butterfield and his Orchestra. Mid-Winters was held on the 8th and 9th of March and the spotlight fell on two favorites at Hampden-Sydney, the Zodiacs and one of the best folk singing groups in the country, The Journeymen, back for a return visit after their tremendous success here last year. Roy Hamilton and The Isley Brothers were the featured entertainers for Finals, which was on the 3rd and 4th of May.

club

The Hampden-Sydney Booster Club was formed in the spring of 1962 by several students for the sole purpose of getting students to play a more active role in supporting the various phases of campus activities. The most obvious outlet for and the most obvious lack of student support was found to be in the field of athletics. The Booster Club then began a campaign to get the students to support their teams. By means of financial support from the school, the Club was able to sponsor buses to away games which would hold special interest for the students. The first bus trip sponsored was to the Guilford game in Danville early in the year. Two buses were loaded, and the support given to the team was a success. A bus was sent to Lynchburg College for the basketball game there, and a school car to the Randolph-Macon basketball game in Ashland. At the orientation program for the freshmen, they were acquainted with the functions of the Booster Club and their support was gained. The freshmen played an active role in the greater school spirit displayed this year. Our cheerleading squad was improved with the addition of Longwood girls, two during football season, along with three of our own students, and during the basketball season, the squad consisted entirely of five girls, under the capable leadership of Toni Raymond. A Tiger suit was acquired, and this mascot was present at all home football games. Movies were sponsored by the Booster Club to gain money for further activities. Finally, the Booster Club is embarking on a series of projects around campus, intended to make Hampden-Sydney a better school and to make the students more interested in the activities going on around them.

The Tigers of Hampden-Sydney under the able coaching of Stokeley Fulton, Louis Wacker, Richard Burrell, and William Pegram compiled a respectable 6-4 record during the 1962 season. The Tigers opened against Guilford College in Danville, Virginia, with a 14-7 victory, and closed against arch-rival Randolph-Macon at Death Valley by mauling the Yellow Jackets 36-0. In between these two games came victories over Bridgewater, Johns Hopkins, Concord, and Centre, and defeats at the hands of Washington and Lee, Sewanee, Western Maryland and Emory and Henry.

director and coaches

The Tigers, enjoying their best season for the past several years, received standout performances from Lewis Everette, Dennis Dills, Freddy Mitchell, Otis Bradley and Joey Viar, all of whom are seniors and will greatly be missed next season. Able performances were turned in by Freshmen Whitey Lipscomb and Travis Tysinger who will help fill the void in next year's team caused by graduation, as the Tigers seek to retain the Little Eight Championship won by this year's squad.

RICHARD A. BURRELL
Director of Athletics

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—14, GUILFORD—7

The Hampden-Sydney Tiger Football Team opened their season on a high note by defeating a strong Guilford College squad 14-6 at Danville.

The Tigers ran up 288 yards over the land and 91 through the air, while holding the Quakers to 129 yards on the ground and 21 in the air. On the opening kickoff Fred Mitchell took the ball and returned it thirty yards to the H-S thirty-five yard line, but after failing to move the ball the Tigers were forced to punt.

Guilford, having found it tough to move against the strong Tiger forward wall, kicked to the Tigers. After taking the ball on the thirty-one yard line, the Tigers rolled sixty-nine yards in 14 plays to score when Quarterback Mitchell barreled over from the one. Mitchell's point kick was good to make the score 7-0.

In the second quarter the Quakers pushed to the Tigers' seven yard line but were forced back to the 22 by a clipping penalty, ending their scoring threat and giving the ball to the Tigers. The half ended with H-S on the 23 yard line of Guilford.

In the third quarter an attempted Tiger punt was blocked by the Quakers on the Tigers' 36 yard line. On the Quakers' first play they tumbled and Ronnie Jones recovered for the Tigers, setting up the second score. On this drive Mitchell teamed with Joey Viar and George Heilig for 50 yards in passes until Denny Dills crashed over from the 9 for the score. Mitchell again kicked the extra point making the score 14-0.

The Quakers made their only tally when they recovered another blocked punt on the H-S 15 yard line and two plays later scored. The try for two points failed and the scoring ended with H-S 14, Guilford 6.

Notice should be given to backs Dennis Dills, Lewis Everette, Fred Mitchell, and George Heilig. The play of linemen Mike Vaughan and Steve Helvin was outstanding for the Tigers.

Dills goes for touchdown.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—6, WASHINGTON & LEE—15

The Tigers of Hampden-Sydney entertained the W & L Generals in the first home game of the season.

W & L's Stuart Yoffe intercepted a Mitchell pass intended for Heilig in the Generals' end zone and returned it to the H-S 9 yard stripe. It took the Generals 3 plays to score as Yoffe ran over from the 4. The Tigers took the kickoff but were stalled and forced to punt. The Generals took the ball and were moving toward pay dirt when the Bengal defense rose to end the threat.

The remainder of the first half saw scoring drives halted by both squads' strengthened defenses.

In the second half the Generals moved from their own 17 in 9 plays for the second score of the afternoon. Henry Sackette added a two-point conversion and the score read W & L 15, H-S 0.

In the fourth quarter the Tigers moved 88 yards in 19 plays to register their only score of the day. Everette carried 6 times in the drive for 35 yards which saw halfback Archie Soucek score from 16 yards out. Everette was stopped inches short on his try for a 2-point conversion and the score remained W & L 15, H-S 6.

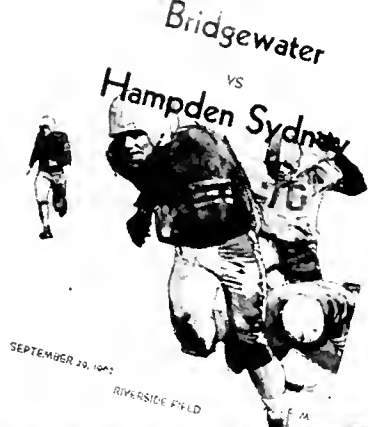

Lewis Everette again proved to be the iron man of the team by carrying the ball 24 out of the 53 rushing plays attempted by H-S. He picked up 80 yards rushing and 6 yards in pass reception to run his offensive totals to 178 yards in 2 games. Mitchell closely followed Everette with 176 yards for the two games.

Others playing an outstanding game were guard Sid Druen, Archie Soucek, and tackle Otis Bradley.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—19, BRIDGEWATER—6

Hampden-Sydney continued its dominance over the Bridgewater Eagles in a series that dates back to 1929. It was the 19th consecutive defeat for the Eagles in this series with H-S.

The Tigers improved their air game over the previous week which saw W & L intercept 4 passes.

Halfback Denny Dills set up two H-S touchdowns while compiling 71 yards in 13 carries. Lewis Everette added the final touchdown in the last quarter on an 8-yard run. Everette picked up 70 yards in 18 tries for the Bengals.

Freddie Mitchell added a 7th point after Everette's score. Mitchell, enjoying one of his better games, passed 26 yards to end Joey Viar for H-S's 2nd touchdown.

The Tigers defeated the Eagles 51-7 last season by rushing for 401 yards and 85 yards in the air. In this season's game H-S collected 199 yards on the ground and 92 in the air.

Coach Fulton summed up this difference in statistics between the two games by saying, "We feel that Bridgewater is a much improved team . . . For our offense it was not entirely our inability, but Bridgewater's ability."

George Heilig moved high on the total yard chart with 63 yards in pass receiving from Mitchell.

On the whole the Tigers showed a balanced attack, being able to move in the air as well as on the ground in posting their second win of the season.

McKibbin makes a diving catch.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—7, SEWANEE—22

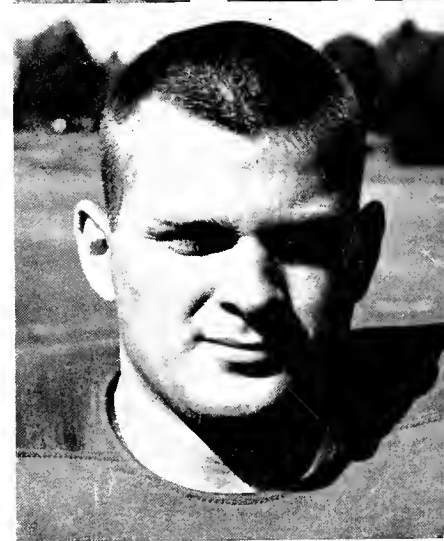

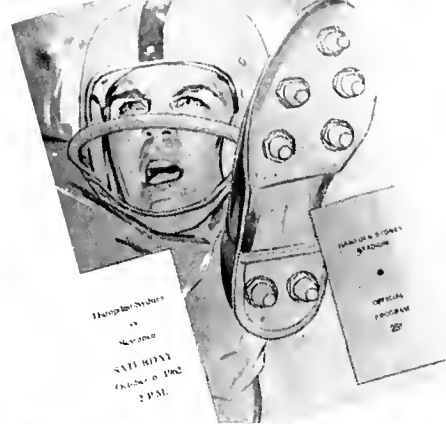

In the fourth game of the season, the Tigers played host to Sewanee. The undefeated Purple Tigers came to Death Valley to win and win they did by the score of 22-7. The contest was hard fought, typical of the H-S-Sewanee rivalry.

In the first half, Sewanee scored first on a fifty-three yard drive; the kick was wide and the Visitors led 6-0. But the Tigers, led by half-back Denny Dills, bounced back on a seventy-five yard scoring march. Dills, with a twenty-three yard run during the drive, plunged through the middle for eight yards and a H-S touchdown. Freddie Mitchell converted and the Tigers held a 7-6 halftime advantage.

In the second half, the Tigers were forced to punt and Sewanee's Agnew fielded the ball on his own sixteen to run all the way for a score. The two point conversion was successful and the Purple Tigers led 14-7. The Garnet and Gray fought back determinedly and moved the ball well toward the Sewanee goal. With three minutes to play, freshman quarter-back Whitey Lipscomb's pass was deflected and a Sewanee player scooped up the ball to run fifty-eight yards for a touchdown. Another two point conversion made the final score 22-7.

The Tigers were keyed up for the game but could not get the breaks to fall their way. Statistically, H-S came out on top in every department except rushing. Ken Pritchett and Otis Bradley played a fine defensive game, while Denny Dills led the offense.

Mitchell and Vaughan close in for the "kill"

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—14, WESTERN MARYLAND—17

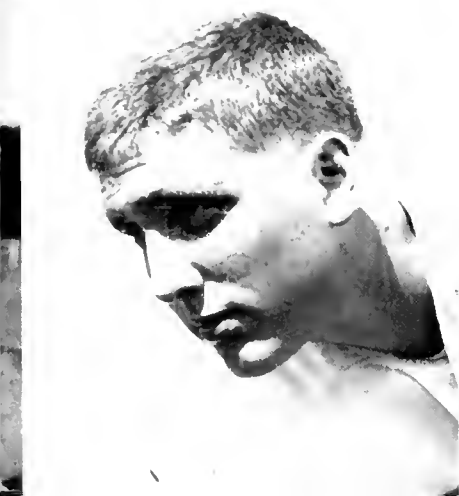

On a most epizootic Saturday, October 19, the Feles tigris from a small Christian college in south-central Virginia met the Green Terrors, the defending Mason-Dixon Conference Champions, on the field of combat. Through the first 14:40 seconds of play the Striped Devils were biblically on their way to yanking the entrails out of the Terrors.

The Tigers stalked 73 yards in 14 plays, with Tiger Everette lunging in from the one for the score. Clyde Mitchell oriented the bladder through the verticals, and the Tigers held a 7-0 lead.

Faulty manipulation of the oblong resulted in an interception by Terror Bill Malumruper on the 47 yard line, the mercurial Marylanders then carrying the ball in four plays to the end zone for what was regarded by the officials as an additional six points. On the extra point attempt, the Hill's finest obstructed the intended passage of the ball, relegating the Terrors to a one point deficit position.

As the inexorable clock slithered towards the end of the half, an aerial transfer of the ball from Clyde to Carroll set up a drive in which Tiger J. Franklin Lipscomb, Jr. paddled into the end zone. Clyde converted, and the officials gave everyone the shot on the end of the half, the Bengaliens leading 14-6.

After a half-time driving exhibition by Maryland mascot G. G. Boyce, the Tigers roared back onto the grass. The Northern delegation, headed by B. Vershotte, scored again and converted a 2 point conversion to convert the score to 14-14. Twenty-two men dug in solidly for the remainder of the contest, but a Death Valleyman let the ball go through his paws while digging, and the Terribles executed a field goal in the final 2 minutes. Those who looked at the scoreboard discovered that W. Md. had 17 to H-S's 14, and strangely enough they were looking at the same score 2 minutes later when the officials again gave the crowd the shot.

Anxious Tiger bench watches action

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—0, EMORY AND HENRY—20

The Tigers played one of their better games although it was not indicated by the score in this year's Homecoming battle with Emory and Henry. The first quarter went scoreless with the ball changing hands four times and with Hampden-Sydney stopping the Wasps deep in Tiger territory. Then late in the second quarter the Wasps, led by Hawkins, moved the ball 71 yards—60 of which were through the air—for their first touchdown. The field goal attempt was unsuccessful, ending the first half, 6-0.

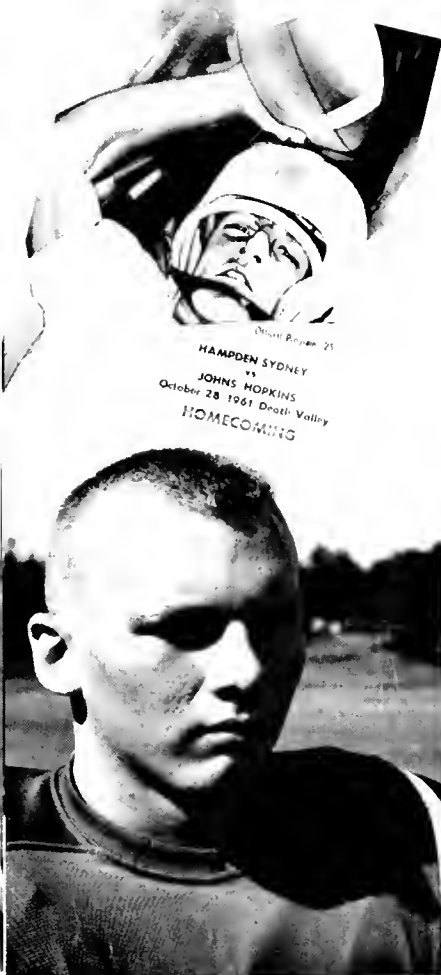

The second half began with the H-S team handicapped because of their loss of Mitchell after receiving an injury in the first half. The Tigers received the ball on the kickoff and moved it down to the Emory and Henry 36 yard line. H-S then fumbled and the Wasps recovered. Two plays later Hawkins romped 74 yards for another 6 points. The 2 point conversion by Hughes was good—piling up the score to 14-0 in favor of the Wasps.

On the second play after the kickoff a H-S pass was intercepted and fourteen plays later Emory and Henry had scored their third and final touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Charlie Taefer. The extra attempt failed, ending the game 20-0.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—15, JOHNS HOPKINS—0

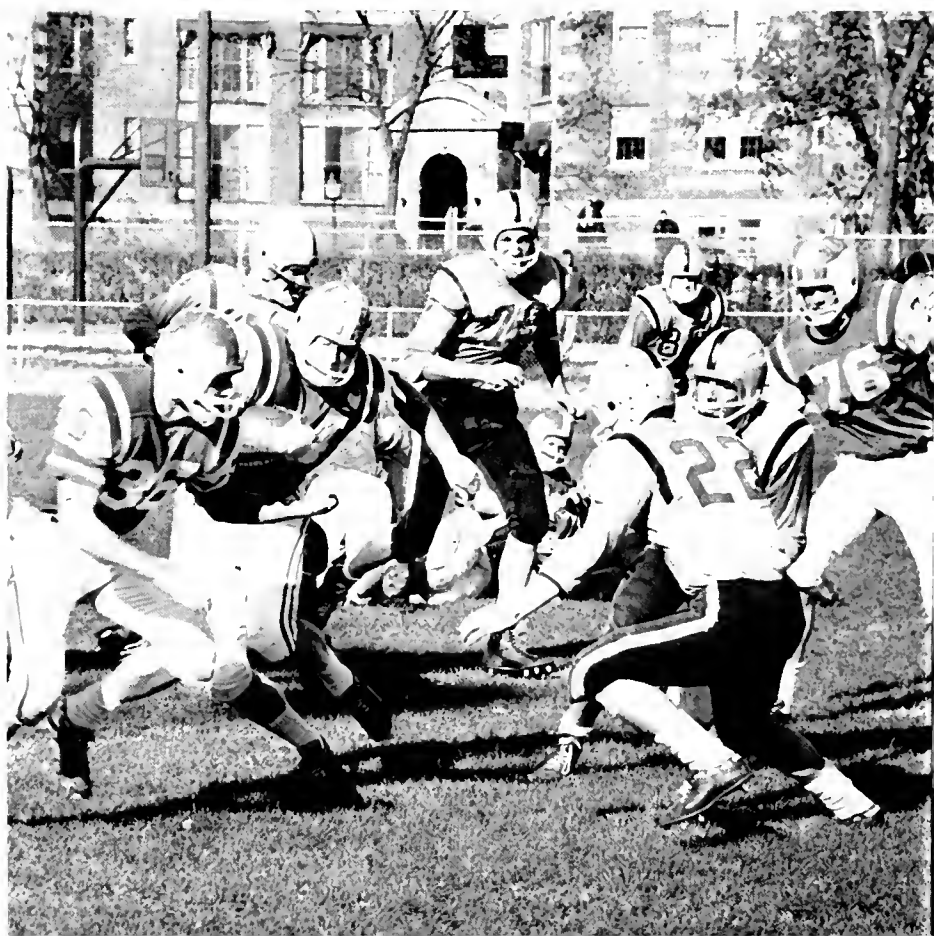

The first quarter of the battle between Hampden-Sydney and Johns Hopkins turned out to be a fumble fest as both teams fumbled twice and neither could move the ball. In the second quarter the Tigers managed to move a Blue Jay punt down inside the Hopkins 20 yard line and from here Mitchell tried a field goal which was short. This ended the scoreless first half.

The Tigers took the field with new spirit in the second half. Taking the kickoff they marched 64 yards in 16 plays for the first score of the game. In the drive Everette picked up 47 of the 64 yards, while Mitchell went over for the score and also kicked his sixth extra point of the year.

Another touchdown drive was begun by H-S after their defense held the Blue Jays. Everette once again playing the role of the big gun, as he picked up 25 of the 28 yards needed for the drive. Everette then passed to Viar for the conversion making the score 15-0. The Jays had only one scoring threat in the final quarter as they reached the 25 yard line, but the determined defensive wall of the Tigers would not give them an end zone ticket and the Jays were forced to give up the ball on downs as the final whistle sounded, ending the game 15-0.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—7, CONCORD—6

On Saturday, November 3rd, the Tigers met Concord College at rain-soaked Death Valley and defeated them 7-6.

The Tigers started off poorly as Fred Mitchell fumbled a punt on the 30 yard line only four plays after the opening kickoff. The Mountain Lions recovered the fumble and marched the 30 yards to pay dirt in 10 plays, giving them a 6-0 1st quarter advantage.

H-S fumbled again on the kickoff following Concord's T.D., but this time the Tiger defense held and the Mountain Lions were forced to give up the ball on downs. H-S, however, continued to be plagued by fumbles and for the third straight time the Mountain Lions recovered.

The first break of the game came in the second quarter when defensive end Dickie Cralle blocked a Lion punt which was recovered by the Tigers on the Concord 9 yard line. Lewis Everette cracked over the center three times, moving the ball to the one. Freddie Mitchell, running from the wingback slot, caught a pass from Whitey Lipscomb for the T.D. Mitchell's point after touchdown was good, proving to be the winning point in the 7-6 game.

The second half proved to be a defensive struggle with neither team able to mount a scoring drive. Concord was held within its own 50 yard line throughout all but the last 4 seconds of the half.

Included among the many Tiger standouts were Otis Bradley, Sandy McLaughlin, and Mike Vaughan for their defensive work, and Lewis Everette, Freddie Mitchell, Ty Tysinger and Whitey Lipscomb for their all-around play.

Coach Fulton summed up the Tigers' performance by saying, "The entire team was responsible for this victory."

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—37, CENTRE—8

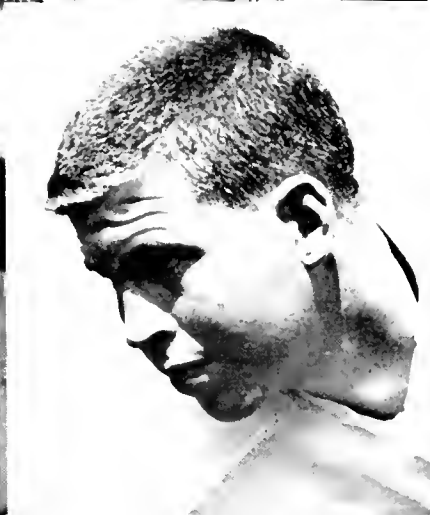

The Tigers showed their ability to use the home-run play for the first time this year by defeating a winless Centre team 37-8, the same margin by which the Tigers won in 1961.

With less than three minutes gone in the game, the Tigers completed a pass from freshman quarterback Whitey Lipscomb to Freddie Mitchell for a 75 yard score. Mitchell converted the extra point to place the Tigers in front 7-0. Taking possession again in the second quarter, the Tigers displayed new-found scoring power, moving 61 yards in 12 plays for the score. Two well-caught passes by Lewis Everette and Joey Viar spearheaded the drive. Denny Dills plunged over from the one for the score. Mitchell caught the extra point pass to boost the score to 15-0. On the following kickoff, Mitchell recovered a fumble on the 27 yard line and in six plays the Tigers scored on Everette's drive. The extra point was not good and the half ended 21-0.

The Colonels, being fired up for the second half, recovered a fumble and marched 56 yards for their only score. The Tigers regained the ball in the third period and marched 38 yards in seven plays. The Lipscomb to Mitchell extra point play succeeded again and the score became 29-8. Archie Soucek carried 19 yards to set up Lewis Everette's second touch down of the day. For the final score Joey Viar recovered a fumble on the Colonels' 12 yard line and Everette plunged over for his third touch-down of the day. This time it was Lipscomb to Heilig on the extra point try, making the final score 37-8—a big victory for the Tigers.

Special notice should be given to Lewis Everette who scored three times, picked up 78 yards on 20 carries, and caught one pass for 19 yards. Freddie Mitchell contributed three passes for 84 yards, scored one TD and 3 extra points, and caught a 75 yard pass. In the line Sid Druen and Freshman Tom Jeffcott played an outstanding game for the Bengals.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY—36, RANDOLPH-MACON—0

On Saturday, November 17, 1962, the Tigers squared off against arch-rival Randolph-Macon at Death Valley in a series dating back to 1898. The Tigers, playing one of their best games of the season with the defense supplying the initiative and Lewis Everett the offensive punch, crushed the Yellow Jackets 36-0. On the strength of the victory, H-S increased its lead in the rivalry 36-21-7.

H-S proved equally effective on both the land and in the air, scoring in every quarter—twice in the second—and winding up the season with a 4-game winning streak, a 6-4 record, and the Little-Eight title.

Everette, enjoying a great afternoon, scored two touchdowns, carried the ball 28 times for 112 yards and caught two passes for 27 yards. He punted three times for a 52.0 average, one of the kicks being of the quick-kick variety, travelling 78 yards to the Jacket six.

A fumble recovery on the Jacket 20 yard line by guard Sid Druen set up the Tigers' first touchdown. Everette picked up 73 yards in 3 carries, then Mitchell passed to Dickie Cralle in the Jacket end zone for the touchdown.

Mitchell later passed to freshman Walt McKibbon for a touchdown to make it 20-0 at half-time after Everette scored a touchdown on a one yard plunge.

The second half saw the Tigers add two more touchdowns, one having been a two yard burst by Everette after Ken Pritchett had literally taken the ball out of the hands of R-M halfback Ronnie Roundtree on the Tiger 25. Freshman Whitey Lipscomb capped the afternoon's point production by recovering a Mitchell fumble in the Randolph-Macon end zone with about two minutes left, making the final score 36-0.

Special notice should be given to George Heilig, Dennis Dills and Otis Bradley, who greatly contributed to the Tigers' victory.

The Hampden-Sydney Tigers opened the 1962-63 season with an upset loss to RPI 100-96. Scoring honors went to Bill Hardin who poured in 30 points to lead the Tigers.

December 4 found the Tigers in Williamsburg for a game with the Indians of William and Mary. Bill Hardin was high scorer with 19 points in a game which saw the Tigers come out on the short end of a 77-64 contest.

Two nights later, the Tigers met Bridgewater in the first home game of the season. H-S set a new scoring record while recording a 127-74 victory. Bill Hardin was again high scorer with 33.

The Tigers evened their season record with an upset victory over defending small college champions, Mt. St. Mary's, 84-82. With 43 points, Hardin set a career high at H-S.

On December 11, Phil Lotz's 26 points led the Bengals to a 95-77 win over Lynchburg, giving the Tigers a 3-2 season record.

During Christmas vacation the Tigers became the first civilian team to take top honors at the Fort Lee Invitational Tournament. Led by Bill Hardin in the championship game, the Tigers met arch-rival Randolph-Macon and defeated the Yellow Jackets 85-81.

On the 27th of December, the Tigers met New Haven College in New Haven, Conn., in the first game of the Bengals' northern invasion. Again Hardin with 29 points led the team to a 96-85 victory.

The following two days the Tigers took part in the New Bedford, Mass., Seafood Festival Tournament and came away with the championship trophy after a first round victory over Bridgewater State (Mass.) 103-72 and a finals victory over Guilford 69-64. Bill Hardin was high scorer in both events with 37 and 19 points, respectively.

On their first outing of the new year, the Tigers were defeated 86-84 by Old Dominion in Norfolk. Norwood Davis led the Tigers with 30 points, while setting a personal career high total.

After traveling to Lexington, the Tigers were surprised by W & L 73-62. Phil Lotz was high scorer in the losing cause.

The second victory over Bridgewater came for the Tigers on January 9 as they broke back in the "win" column 109-84. Norwood Davis and Bill Hardin led the Tigers with 35 points each.

Led by Norwood Davis with 25 points, the H-S team could not overcome the Yellow Jackets on the Ashland court and the Blue Blooded Tigers were on the short end of an 81-78 final score.

Back again at Gammon Gym on January 15, the Tigers, led by Bill Hardin with 22 points took Old Dominion with a 74-70 victory—the 9th for the Tigers against 4 defeats.

On an outing to Maryland, the Bengals were defeated by Baltimore U. 78-85. Bill Hardin came through with 25 points to take high scoring laurels.

Little Dave Trickler's 23 points—a game high for him—led the Tiger pack past Roanoke College 76-65. This victorious game, played on the Hill, brought the season record to 10-5.

On February 5, the Tigers trampled Lynchburg College at Death Valley 102-58. This onslaught was led offensively by Bill Hardin with 27 points.

The Tigers avenged an earlier season loss to W & L by defeating the Generals 96-88 on February 9. Twenty-nine points by Hardin showed the way for the H-S loopers.

The night of February 12 found Gammon Gym packed by 7:00 p.m. as the Tigers took on the flying Yellow Jackets of Randolph-Macon. In one of the most action-packed games played at Death Valley, the Tigers defeated the Jackets 90-87. In one of his finest performances, Bill Hardin poured in 26 points for the Tigers, and led all scorers.

Regular season for the Tigers terminated with a loss to Roanoke College and a victory over RPI. High scoring honors went to Thom Quarles with 23 points in the Roanoke game and Bill Hardin with 31 in the RPI game.

On February 23 the Tigers met Old Dominion at Lynchburg in a game to determine which team would go to the Mason-Dixon Championships in Baltimore. The Tigers showed their class by defeating Old Dominion 90-72. Again it was Bill Hardin who pumped in 33 points to lead the Tigers.

The Tigers were defeated by Loyola of Baltimore 82-74 in the first round of the M-D Tournament, closing out the season.

The end of the season found the Tigers with a 15-7 record and a home winning streak of 17 straight games. Special notice should be given to Norwood Davis and Bill Hardin, the only seniors on the squad, for the fine job done for the Tigers throughout their 4 years at H-S. With the conclusion of the season, Hardin led all scorers in the state with a 25 point average.

TENNIS TEAM MASON-DIXON CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Under the guidance of Coach Stokeley Fulton, the 1962 Tiger Tennis Team turned in the finest performance ever. This excellent record included a season of thirteen wins and no losses against college competition and, closing the season by defeating Loyola University of Baltimore, the winner of the Northern Division of the Mason-Dixon Conference. This victory being won on May 18, 1962, on the Hampden-Sydney Courts gave the over-all Mason-Dixon Conference tennis championship to Hampden-Sydney.

The 1962 Tiger netters, led by Captain Buddy Saunders of Roanoke, had as their top six men: Pete Hatcher, Fred Kellmeyer, Captain Saunders, George Heilig, Bing Gentry, and Grayson Boyce. Other men competing for places on the team were Scott Street, Charles Walton, Horace Lukens, and Weldon Tuck. The top six men returned for the 1963 season.

1962 GOLF TEAM MASON-DIXON CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The Hampden-Sydney Golf Team enjoyed a very successful year during the 1962 season. Under the capable leadership of Coach Richard Burrell, the Linksmen won seven matches, lost one, and tied one. The team, composed of Charlie Ferguson, Bob Bennett, Knox Hillman, Phil Lotz, Buzzy Barker, Wilson Page, Jim Robertson, and Charlie Crawley, came through to win the Mason-Dixon Tournament held at the Engleside Country Club in Staunton, Virginia.

The victories came over Lynchburg, Bridgewater, Roanoke, Richmond, R.P.I., Old Dominion (formerly Norfolk Division of W&M), and Randolph-Macon. The loss came at the hands of V.M.I., and the tie was with Lynchburg in the second meeting of the two teams.

baseball

The 1962 edition of the Hampden-Sydney Baseball Team posted a respectable record of 8 wins and 8 losses. The big win of the year was the 4 to 2 defeat of arch-rival Randolph-Macon and also conference champion here at Death Valley. Art Matney turned in a splendid pitching performance, allowing the potent Macon attack only four hits.

Matney's best effort was at Bridgewater where he hurled 13 innings and allowed only three hits. All this was in vain as his mates gave him poor support in the field and the Bengals bowed 3-2.

Other highlights of the year were a 12-11 win over Harvard, which won the Ivy League title; a sweep of both games with Washington and Lee; and a nine-run ninth inning rally that had Southern Conference-power West Virginia on the ropes.

Individual honors were taken by freshman pitcher Steve Sanderson, who posted a 3-0 record. Tom McDaniel led the stickmen with a .318 average, and Moley Stuart led the team in runs-batted-in with 14. Fred Mitchell at second base led a spirited infield.

The Ray A. Moore Most Valuable Player Award went to catcher Stuart, and the sportsmanship award went to the only departing senior, third baseman Will Lowery.

track

The 1962 track season finished with an improvement over the previous year for the Tigers, despite a losing record. Out of seven scheduled meets, H-S had only one win, with six losses and one meet cancelled.

The opening meet pitted the Tigers against Roanoke College, a team which proved to be the most powerful the Bengals would oppose all season, and to which they bowed.

A meet scheduled with Washington and Lee was cancelled, pitting the Tigers next against Bridgewater College in a contest which was not decided until the last event of the day. In this event, the mile run, H-S was edged out by Bridgewater to lose the event and also the meet.

Facing Lynchburg in another close contest, the Tigers won several events but still failed to bring the victory home due to Lynchburg's superior depth. Shortly after this the same story was repeated against the Yellow Jackets of Randolph-Macon.

In a three-way meet with Frederick and Guilford, the Tigers at last were able to score a victory with an almost total sweep of all events. However, this was to be the only Tiger win; the final meet with Old Dominion College was a loss.

In the Little Eight meet following the close of the regular season, the Tigers placed a respectable fifth, despite the lack of depth handicap which had plagued the team for the entire season.

Seniors Miller, Romm, Matney and Bradley finished their wrestling careers this season while adding support and depth to the team. Wins this year were against Western Maryland College and Catholic University.

Otis Bradley—twice Mason-Dixon Conference Outstanding Wrestler and thrice Mason-Dixon Conference Champion—ended his college career with a phenomenal 42 wins and only one loss which came in the finals of the Mason-Dixon Tournament his freshman year. The wrestling team and Hampden-Sydney College are proud of this man and the KALEIDOSCOPE pays its tribute to a fine wrestler in Otis Bradley.

Among his honors gained during the four seasons he has wrestled for Hampden-Sydney, Otis Bradley has been the 191 lb. State AAU Champion and placed fourth in the Eastern Coast AAU Tournament in New York. Otis' name will live on at Hampden-Sydney in the form of a trophy, The Bradley Sportsmanship Trophy, to be given each year.

LEWIS C. EVERETTE
ALL-TIME TIGER GREAT

The close of the 1962 football season marks the end of Lewis Everett's college football career, a career which Hampden-Sydney has not witnessed since that of Little All-American Billy Benson. One need only to look at the awards received by Lewis to realize the extent to which he has contributed to the Tiger squad.

Foremost is that of honorable mention on the Little All-American team. Lewis, having been selected to the third team on the Williamson Rating Poll, was one of four small-college players from Virginia and North Carolina to receive the distinction. For the past two years Lewis has been selected to the Virginia All-Small College Team; the Bedford Junior Chamber of Commerce presented him with their award for the most outstanding sportsmanship in Virginia's small colleges this year.

Another state honor was his selection as runner-up for the small college player-of-the-year in Virginia. Last but not least, Lewis' own teammates voted him the most valuable player on the team for 1962.

This year Lewis carried the football 196 times for a 4.15 yard-per-carry average, which is remarkable in the light of his gaining most of this yardage by pounding away at the center of the opponent's line. And, always tough near the goal line, Lewis scored 42 points for the '62 season.

During his four-year career Lewis gained 1,669 yards in 407 carries for a 4.10 yards-per-carry average. Most of the Tiger punting was done by him and he kicked 117 times for a 36.4 yard-per-punt average. His overall point total for the last four years was 144 points.

Lewis has been a team man in all aspects. Always hustling, he was a hard man to stop on the crucial third-down play. But perhaps the best testimonial to Lewis' versatility may be found in the words of the man who has coached him for three years.

Coach Stokeley Fulton has said, "Lewis is a boy who can do a lot of things well: run, kick, pass, receive passes, and also play defense. Lew is a perfectionist. He believes in doing things only one way, the right way. He has made use of his natural ability along with his fine competitive spirit to make him the ball player that he is. It's a pleasure to coach a boy like Lew!"

The class of '63 counts in its membership one of the all-time basketball Tiger greats, Bill Hardin. Bill, a native of Huntington, W. Va., has completely rewritten the record books during his four years on the Hill, scoring 1,964 points and having been named Virginia Sports Writers' Player of the Year in 1961.

Bill has been selected to the All Little Eight in 1960, 1961, and 1962, All Mason-Dixon in 1961 and 1962, 2nd Team Mason-Dixon Conference Tournament 1961, Fort Lee Invitational All Tournament Team in 1961 and 1962, and All Seafood Festival Tournament in 1962.

In his freshman year on the Hill Bill scored 276 points in 24 games for an 11.5 average. In his sophomore year he pulled his average up to 20.3 with 487 points in 25 games. In the following two years Bill was the state's leading scorer with a 27.3 average in his junior year and a 24.9 average this year. In the nation during 1961 Bill ranked among the top 14 in small colleges and 21st among all colleges.

Hardin's scoring records are all the more incredible when he is first seen. He stands only 6'2", quite short for a center in college ball, and seems more like a forward or tall guard. However, this height deficit is overcome by Bill's jumping ability which has enabled him to jump 10'7" or 30" above his reach.

His jumping ability gives him the power to compete with the bigger men. Bill's favorite shot, a soft bank shot from the corner or outside, depends upon this jump. This shot has enabled Bill to score 42 points against Washington College in 1961 and 43 against Mt. St. Mary's this year. Included in his other games this year are 30 and 31 point efforts against RPI, 27 against Lynchburg, and 23 and 26 against Randolph-Macon.

One gets the idea that all Bill can do is score but this is far from the truth. In his junior and senior years he averaged over 11 rebounds a game and has constantly been a defensive standout.

Off the court Bill is also a standout in academics, being a Dean's List Student for the past year. Around the campus, Hardin is a most popular student. Any night Bill can be found in his room studying or listening to the W. Va. basketball game.

This is Bill Hardin—Hampden-Sydney's Little All-American in both 1961 and 1962—a true Tiger Great!

The Intramural Sports System has been in operation at H-S for the past twenty years, supplying much needed athletic competition for those men not participating in the varsity program. The seven social fraternities and the Independent Organization compete in seven sports for the Intramural Cup, which is presented to the organization with the greatest number of points at the end of the year.

The sports are divided into major and minor for the purpose of awarding points. The major sports are touch football, A league basketball, and softball. The minor sports are B league basketball, ping pong, horseshoes, and volleyball.

Tom McDaniel, intramural manager, is in charge of scheduling all events, of tabulating all acquired points, and the care of jerseys and equipment.

The 1962 football crown was taken by the Pi Kappa Alphas, who were undefeated and were only scored on by a strong Kappa Alpha squad. For second place, there was a tie between the Kappa Alpha's and the Kappa Sigma's.

The "A"-league basketball crown was won by the PiKA's with the closest competition being furnished by the KA's and Kappa Sigs.

Our most sincere appreciation and thanks go to those whose contributions may sometimes be taken for granted, but without whose talents and efforts it would have been impossible to produce the sixty-seventh issue of the KALEIDOSCOPE.

To Thomas M. Richardson we are immeasurably indebted for his tireless work in the photography department. Others to whom we are obliged for their support in securing photographs for us include: Edward Vantine Studios, Inc., of Hamilton, New York; Richmond Times-Dispatch, Danville Register and Bee, and Baltimore Sun.

Those students and faculty members who gave in various ways their time and energies in support of this yearbook deserve our special thanks.

For their aid in setting up and carrying out the plans for this yearbook, we are indeed grateful to Mr. William P. Blackburn and Mr. Herbert B. Craft of Lynchburg Engraving Company, and Mr. Austin F. Taylor and Mr. F. M. Walters, Jr., of the Stone Printing and Manufacturing Company.

We would like to close by expressing the hope that through the years you will find many fond memories between the covers of this KALEIDOSCOPE.
